9. Login using Microsoft account credentials. If an account has not been created, click Sign up now and create the account.

- First name: A text input field containing "zco".
- Last name: A text input field containing "test ap".
- Country/region: A dropdown menu with a downward arrow.
- Postal Code: An empty text input field.
- Gender: A dropdown menu with "Male" selected and a downward arrow.
- Birth date: Three dropdown menus for day, month, and year. The day is "19", the month is "July", and the year is "1985".

Below the birth date fields, there is a checked checkbox with the text: "Send me email with promotional offers from Microsoft. (You can unsubscribe at any time.)".

Below the checkbox, a text prompt reads: "Click I accept to agree to the Microsoft services agreement and privacy & cookies statement." Below this prompt is a blue button labeled "I accept".

Figure 6

10. Enter account details and click the I accept button.
11. A successful account creation alert will pop up (see Figure 7).

Figure 7

12. Click Close to close the alert and return to the Windows PowerShell screen (see Figure 8).
